MARRIAGE DATE FIXED

Miss Elkins and Duke of the Abruzzi to Wed in February.
It is understood that before her wedding Miss Elkins will have conferred upon her the title of Countess of Teramo — Bride-to-Be Will Also Become a Member of the Catholic Church—Marriage Portion Will Be $5,000,000.

Paris, Sept. 6. — The date for the wedding of Miss Katherine Elkins and the Duke of the Abruzzi has been fixed for the latter part of February of next year, according to reports in circulation here, which seem to be absolutely reliable. It is stated that the date was decided upon after a consultation between the prospective bridegroom and his brother, the Duke of Aosta. The meeting took place at Venice on Aug. 2 and was carefully kept from the public until now.
There is every reason to believe that the Duchess of Aosta, who from the first has strenuously opposed the match, has at last withdrawn her opposition and has abandoned her proposed second trip to Africa, which was planned with the idea of avoiding being present at the wedding.
Duke Will Visit Elkins Family.
Within 10 days the Duke of the Abruzzi will pay a visit to the Elkins family here and at that time arrangements will be made for the presentation of the senator's family to the Italian royal household.
In order to avoid newspaper publicity as much as possible the presentation will take place at some obscure town in Italy and the date will be kept a secret until after the ceremonies.
It is understood that before her marriage Miss Elkins will have conferred upon her the title of Countess of Teramo, in honor of one of the largest towns in the Abruzzi district.
The statement is made at the same time that Miss Elkins will become a member of the Roman Catholic church and already plans for her instruction in that faith have been made. Her religious instructor will be Mgr. Beccari, the royal chaplain, and he will be aided in the work by Mgr. Bissetti, who is well known in Europe as one of the pope's personal ministers as well as a close friend of the supreme pontiff. They have already agreed to undertake the task of converting Miss Elkins to the Catholic faith and it is understood that she will be placed under their tutelage in a very short time.
The financial arrangements which go with the marriage have been attended to and it is announced that the matter has been satisfactorily settled so far as both parties are concerned. The marriage portion will be $5,000,000, which is not considered extraordinary in amount here in view of the rank of the prospective bridegroom and the wealth of Senator Elkins.
All of the arrangements thus far made have been the result of negotiations between Lieutenant Marquis Negrotto de Cambiaso, as the representative of his personal friend, the Duke of the Abruzzi, and Senator Elkins himself or some agent acting for him with full power to sign any agreement arrived at.
While it has been impossible thus far to get official confirmation of all this, Paris is firmly convinced that the wedding is to take place as stated and that all the details have been worked out and agreed by all parties concerned.
A call was made at the Italian embassy here today and the facts as outlined here were laid before the officials with the request that the reports be confirmed or denied. This was met with the statement that the members of the embassy staff were unable to confirm but that they would not deny that the wedding was to take place. In private conversation one official talked in a tone that tended strongly to confirm the whole matter.

THREW MONEY AWAY

Young Fowler's Suit Case Containing $5,600 Found by Police.
Two Red Bandanna Handkerchiefs Which Had Been Pierced With Eye Needles, Also Found in the Woods Indications Point to Murderers as Being Employes of the Brick Company—None of the Robbers Has Been Apprehended.

The bandits who murdered young Denton Fowler, assistant treasurer of the Atlas Building Material company near Newburgh, N. Y., Saturday afternoon, led through the woods in such haste that they dropped the treasurer's suit case containing $5,600 in gold, silver and bills. The police found the bag Sunday morning while beating up the woods.
In addition to the bag they found the weapons the robbers had used in the killing, a Winchester repeating rifle, a shotgun, two revolvers, two caps such as Italian laborers commonly wear in this part of the country and two red bandanna handkerchiefs which had been pierced with eyeholes and used for masks.
The trail of two of the assassins led in a wide course to the brickyard, where 150 of the employes—Italians, Hungarians, Poles, largely—had been waiting for Dent Fowler's approach with their three weeks' pay.
The discovery of the suitcase, the rifle, shotgun and revolvers, etc., together with the trail of the two men, indicate almost conclusively that employes of the Atlas company, Italians almost certainly, were the men who ambushed Fowler and his negro driver. These, the police think, had the audacity to run in behind the disappearing brickmakers and join in the hunt.
Lane believes that at least two possibly more of the brickmakers, detached themselves from the crowd sometime in the morning, slipped about 500 yards southward and waited in the small clearing for Fowler. Lane's party found that 5 or 6 men had squatted there for some time.
The clearing was within a few steps of the narrow little traveled road through which Dent Fowler and Driver Ragsdale were to pass, but so thick grown were the trees and bushes that the spot could not have been seen from the road.
None of the robbers had been apprehended.

SENATOR HEMMED IN BY FIRE

Penrose and Hunting Party Fought Way Through Blazing Forest.
Coloado Springs, Col., Sept. 6.—Senator Boies Penrose of Pennsylvania and his two brothers, Dr. C. B. Penrose of Philadelphia and Spencer Penrose of this city, were hemmed in by forest fires in Montana, where they had gone on a hunting trip, and were compelled to spend several days cut off entirely from communication with the outside world before they won their way through the flames by a system of "back firing."
According to Spencer Penrose, who has just reached here from Montana, several were killed in the fires near the Penrose camp.
Annoyed by Tussock Moth.
Harrisburg, Sept. 6.—The tussock moth, the most bothersome of caterpillar insects, is reported as being unusually bad in Berks and Lancaster counties this year. The moths have been annoying farmers and owners of trees. The state authorities have been making inspections, and are urging spraying and destruction of egg masses.

KILLED BY HIS OWN CAR

Savannah Man Was Driving it When Tire Burst.
Savannah, Sept. 6.—Michael Jones, a local retail merchant, was almost instantly killed and four other occupants of Jones' automobile were badly bruised when a burst tire caused the machine to turn a somersault on the Grand Prize racecourse.
Jones' head was caught by the steering wheel as the car turned over and his neck was broken. The machine was wrecked.

STOLE $10,820 IN GOLD

Young Woman, Friend of Mine Amalgamator, Had Some of It.
Telluride, Col., Sept. 6.—William Irwin, amalgamator at the Libbey Bell mine, was arrested last night on the charge of stealing refined gold, the property of the mine. He confessed to the police that he had stolen $10,820 worth of gold in the last year.
At the home of a young woman on whom he has been calling policemen found $2,931 worth of gold he had given her. He represented to her, she said, that it was his and that he wanted her to keep it for him.
James R. Keene Has Pneumonia.
Lexington, Ky., Sept. 6.—A statement in regard to Mr. Keene's condition was issued by Dr. J. W. Scott, after a consultation with other physicians. The statement says that Mr. Keene while a very sick man was in no immediate danger. The doctors in their conference made a thorough examination and found that the noted turfman was suffering from a rather severe case of pneumonia but they believe that with his rigid constitution he will be able to pull through.

FORCED TO STEAL

Girls Take Plunder From Department Stores to Get Food.
New York, Sept. 6.—Declaring that they were forced to steal in order to buy food and clothing, Annie Cambarth, 16 years old, who said her mother lived in Wade, Pa.; Helen Marshall, 16 years old, and her sister Sophie, 19 years old, pleaded in the police court at Paterson not to be sent to prison.
The Cambarth girl was arrested Saturday night in a department store in Paterson, and when searched by the police matron a large quantity of women's clothes was taken from her. She confessed that she had been stealing from stores for several weeks, and she implicated the two Marshall girls, with whom she lived at 21 Spruce street.
The police found a great variety of articles at the Spruce street home. They included dresses, coats, household utensils and fancy postal cards. The elder Marshall girl was held as a prisoner, but the younger was paroled until this morning. Recorder Carroll fined Annie and Helen $10 each. Sophie was given a warning.

CRAWLED INTO WOLVES' DEN

Ranchman Has Life and Death Battle With Maudraiders.
Sioux Falls, S. D., Sept. 6. — To crawl into a wolf den with a rifle and fight a life and death battle with gray wolves, was the experience of George Forch, a ranchman, in Western South Dakota.
Forch and four of his neighbors started to hunt some of the animals which had been killing their young cattle and sheep. The five men came upon the trail of four full grown wolves, which they followed for many miles. They succeeded in killing one of them on the open prairie. The three other animals took refuge in their den.
With a hunting knife in one hand and his rifle in the other, Forch crawled a distance of 100 feet through a tunnel to the den. When he came upon the wolves they attacked him, but he killed the three.

MEN PINNED UNDER AUTO

Machine Overturned and Held Five Prisoners Until Help Came.
Hackensack, N. J., Sept. 6.—Michael Pascarella, a wholesale paper dealer of 232 West Broadway, New York, living at Emerson, six miles north of here, invited three New York friends out to ride in his new automobile. His son said he knew how to run it and he was allowed to try his hand.
When near the Old Hook cemetery, between Westwood and Emerson, something went wrong with the steering gear. The automobile left the road, climbed a steep embankment and then turned turtle.
The five occupants were made prisoners under the car, but all miraculously escaped injury. Men in a passing machine rescued the party. The new car is now in a Hackensack garage, a wreck.

WEEKLY TRADE REVIEW

Report on the Condition of Business by R. G. Dun & Co.
R. G. Dun & Co's weekly review says:

Though there has been no pronounced change in business conditions and while a quiet conservatism still prevails yet the movement in most departments of trade and industry is indicative of increased confidence and wider activity as the fall season draws near.
Further progress appears in iron and steel, the improvement in demand now becoming more impressive. Conditions in the pig iron division are distinctly better and higher prices are asked for next year's delivery, although some concessions are noted for early shipment. Sales of close to 70,000 tons have been made of late and several important inquiries are pending.
Manufacturers of sheet and tin plates in the Pittsburgh district purchase bars more freely and considerable tonnage is under negotiations.
A better general trade is reported by drygoods distributors although the trend of buying is still conservative, there is a wider recognition of the scarcity in textiles, which will result from extraordinary curtailment of the output.
Commercial failures this week in the United States are 197 against 192 last week. Failures in Canada number 23, against 23 last week.

OFFICIALS ARRIGNED

Held to Blame For Lynching of Anti-Saloon League Detective.
One of the most bitter excoerations of public officials ever called to the attention of the Ohio courts was embraced in the report of the special grand jury at Newark, O., directed by the state attorney general's department on the lynching of Carl M. Etherington, an Anti-Saloon League detective, July 18 last.
The report carried with it 58 indictments, of which 25 were for first degree murder, 27 for rioting, 10 for assault and battery and 19 for perjury.
Former Sheriff William Ling of Lincoln county, former Mayor Herbert Atherton of Newark and former Chief of Police Robert Zergebiel are held to blame for the lynching. The sheriff is said to have cowardly deserted his post, the mayor to have gone to bed at home and the chief to have gone to a nearby saloon to play cards.

FOUR MEN KILLED

During a terrific storm four men were struck by lightning and instantly killed at Lamore, N. D. They were Fred Osborn, Murray Ellis, Peter Nelson and Edward Peterson.
The men were members of a threshing crew and, with four companions, were sleeping in a small tent.
The four who were killed laid with their heads towards the door of the tent, the wing of which had been blown open by the wind.
Their companions laid with their heads to the rear end of the tent, but so close that their feet touched the others.
They escaped with a severe shock and only minor injuries.

Mrs. Russell Sage is Building One at Forest Hills, L. I.
Mrs. Russell Sage, the financier's widow, has established at Seawaren, N. J., an experiment station for the testing of fireproof building materials in connection with her "model city" project.
The construction of the "model city" has just been started at Forest Hills, L. I. The purpose of the undertaking is to enable men of moderate means to own homes with gardens and plenty of fresh air.
The houses are to be absolutely fireproof in their structural parts.
